Professional Development Conference
Greater Columbus Convention Center
400 North High Street
Columbus, OH 43215

All Day

Mark Hensler,
pd_director@omea-ohio.org

The 2027 OMEA Professional Development Conference will take place in Columbus from 9:30 AM, Thursday, January 28 until 3:00 PM, Saturday, January 30 at the Greater Columbus Convention Center and nearby hotel properties. The full schedule will be available through the guidebook app in December, 2026. Traditionally, the OMEA PDC is the third largest music conference in the United States with nearly 300 sessions presented by nationally recognized master teachers demonstrating research-based, best practices in the field of music education.

In addition, over 30 performing ensembles will present concerts showcasing the talents of Ohio's students.

Included in the registration fee is access to the largest music trade show east of the Mississippi. Displays and demonstrations by nearly 250 exhibitors from across the United States allow teachers to see the new products available in the music industry.

With a few additional steps, teachers may use their conference experience to earn CEU's and graduate level continuing education credit (additional expense) for their licensure requirements.
